GARDNER WILL PROBATED.
Legal Tangle Over Settlement of Ashford Estates.

Judge J. L. Storms of Mansfield held a hearing in this city Monday relative to probating the will of the late William Gardner of Ashford. The testator left $10,000 to his son George and the balance of the estate amounting to $5,000 to his other son, Representative E. W. Gardner. It is claimed that during the life of the testator his son George had received over $3,000 and it was the father's purpose to bequeath a sum to his other son sufficient to balance these advances. Mrs. William Gardner died about eighteen years ago. Her late husband was appointed administrator but the estate was never fully settled and an administrator was appointed Monday to complete the settlement. The two sons shared equally in the mother's will. The legal question arises as to whether the income from Mrs. Gardner's estate not expended by her husband, becomes a part of the father's estate or belongs still to the mother's estate. Hull, McGuire and Hull of New London represent George and his wife, and H. King of this city is counsel for the executor, E. W. Gardner.

Judge Storms admitted for probate the will of William Gardner and E. W. Gardner was appointed executor, he filing a $15,000 bond with O. D. Baker of Ashford as surety. In the case of Mrs. Gardner's estate James Knowlton of Ashford was appointed administrator and Arthur James and Nathaniel Knowlton, both of Ashford, were appointed appraisers.

LINCOLN'S SENTIMENTS

Wanting to work is so rare a want that it should be encouraged.
A universal feeling whether well or ill-founded cannot be safely disregarded.

Stand with anybody that stands right. Stand with him while he is right, and part with him when he goes wrong.
Gold is good in its place, but living, brave, patriotic men are better than gold.

In this age and in this country public sentiment is everything. With it nothing can fail; against it nothing can succeed.

All that I ask for the negro is that if you do not like him let him alone. If God gave him but little, that little let him enjoy.
There is no grievance that is a fit object as redress by mob law.

For Dandruff and Falling Hair---25 Cent "Danderine"

Save Your Hair! Danderine Destroys Dandruff and Stops Falling Hair at Once—Grows Hair, We Prove it.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is shiny and lustrous you must use Danderine, because nothing else accomplishes so much for the hair. Just one application of Knowlton's Danderine will double the beauty of your hair, bestow it immediately solves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scrub robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots

Fried Potatoes "Cottolene" style
Did you ever eat French Fried Potatoes made with Cottolene? If not, you've never eaten French Fried Potatoes at their best.
Cottolene makes them rich and crisp and appetizing, but never greasy.
If you have been frying and shortening your food with butter, try Cottolene. It is every bit as good, at less than one-third the price.
If you are using lard for shortening and frying, we would simply suggest that Cottolene is recognized and recommended by leading physicians, domestic science authorities, and culinary experts generally, as being more wholesome, digestible and producing a better food.
Cottolene is a vegetable product—pure in source and making—and is bound to be better and safer than lard.
